

Position: Catering Assistant

We are looking for an enthusiastic person to join our small but extremely focused and dedicated team at a picturesque Golf Club in Streatley near Reading. The ideal candidate should have great people skills, be passionate about delivering excellent customer service as well as being able to work as part of a team within the our bar and function rooms.

Day to day tasks would include, preparation of our functions, assisting in the service of various events including weddings and working alongside our existing food and beverage team within the bar and members lounge.

Previous experience in a similar role is preferable though not essential as full training will be provided, although a 'can do' attitude is a must. 45 hour contract includes evenings and weekends.

Due to our location, your own means of transport is advisable.

If it sounds like you and you're ready for a challenge, apply now!
